THE ADVENTURES OF A POLYGAMIST. A man named Smith was arrested in New York on Sunday, on a charge of bigamy. It is alleged that two years ago he married Works in the country, endeavoring to acquire a Miss Letitia Rolston, in that city, and was knowledge of the manufacture, distribution, and Miss Letitia Rolston, in that city, and was subsequently twice arrested on serious charges, but through the entreaties of his wife was let off. Soon after, his ill-treatment caused her to leave him, and engage herself as cook at some out of the way boarding house. The subsequent adventures of Smith, the Tribune thus narrates:

"During the past summer, by the help of a good suit of clothes and an unlimited stock of brass, he, while at Staten island, made the acquaintance of Miss Mary M. Morange, the daughter of an extensive furniture dealer in the Bowery, and won her affections. To her the Bowery, and won her affections. To her munity demand that party politics should be exfather he represented that he was an officer cluded from municipal affairs, I have uniformly expectant to a fortune of $150,000 from his rich old father in Newark, New Jersey. It does not appear that Mr. Morange made very strenuous efforts to find out the truth of this story, but Mr. Smith, to quiet any lingering suspicions, invited his intended to visit his parents. They went to Newark, and stopped before a splendid mansion, occupied by a Mr. Smith, which he said was his father's house, and, leaving Miss M. at the gate, he walked up to the front door to break the news to his wealthy and somewhat choleric parent. Unfortunately the family was absent, (so he said when he came back,) and the young lady returned to New York without suspecting anything wrong, more espe-cially as Smith (turning his head aside and shutting his eyes) exclaimed, with a magnificent wave of his hand, as they retired from the spot: "All that I see is mine, and shall be thine." The young folks were married at the Allen street M. E. church, by the Rev. Mr. Roche, on the 27th of last month, and Mr. Smith took his bride to apartments at No. 58 Allen st. As this was within a few doors of the residence of his first mother inlaw, (Rolston,) his first wife very soon became apprised of what was going on, and proceedings were instituted which culminated in Mr. Smith's arrest. When taken before Justice Steers, confronted with the two pretty little tearful women who claimed him for their own, he frankly acknowledged that he was the author of their mutual misery .-Mr. Smith was thereupon confided to the tender mercies of the keeper of the Essex market prison, and for some years to come will have but very little chance of making any further advances in his career as a free

A NEW KINK.

Mr. Thomas Hodgson, a white man, in New York, professes to have discovered an article that will take the kinks out of the hair of persons of negro blood. At a lecture on Tuesday night, which was attended by colored persons, Mr. Hodgson explained his unique discovery. We copy the following account of his experiments from the New York Times:

"Mr. Hodgson looked at the contents of the tin-pan—the tin-pan having been over the gas jet all this time—and finding that it had warmed up considerably, took it off and strightway proposed to commence the unkink-ing process, if any lady would come up.— But the ladies were bashful in the presence of so large an audience, and there was danger that the Great African Unkinker in the tinpan would get chilled before a subject could be found. Finally a male subject was induced to go forward, who agreed to let him experiment upon fifty strands. Mr. Hodgson went at him, and before the females had finished their second giggle, that which in its natural state did not apppear to be more ong. was dience straight as a loon's leg-as glossy as a beaver's back after a splurge, and near twelve inches in length. There was certainly a great improvement, but the ladies insisted that there was a little wool and a little kink there yet, a remark which caused a colored gentleman to express the opinion that there was no satisfying some people!

WHAT IT COSTS TO DIE IN CUBA. A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says:

"If you die on the Island it will cost your friends $600 before your remains can be taken away. If you die, poor, and those expenses are not paid, you are taken in the public dead cart and pitched into a ditch among the remains of paupers and those who have been executed. The $600 is made up as follows: Coffin $175; embalming $250; church tax $72; hotel for bedding, about $40."

CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purchasers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to themselves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys. We can assure our friends and customers, that the unrivalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.
Our new establishment, Gissonton Mills, on the Monongahela River, gives us unequalled facilities for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiln-dried grain.

Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to notice, the words GIBSONTON MILLS and JOHN GIBson, Sons & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt; and we deem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will prosecute and expose any person or persons who may hereafter copy or use our Brands.
